

OCSI are looking for interns

Want to use your knowledge and skills to make a difference in the real world? This is an opportunity to gain experience in an exciting and challenging consultancy environment focusing on improving public services.

We are looking for one or more interns to work in any one of the roles below. You will be working closely with the OCSI team, but need to think on your feet and take the initiative when required.

The positions are three month contracts working 35 hours a week at our central Brighton office. Interns are paid the Brighton Living wage <sup>1</sup>.

Role	What could you be doing?	We are ideally looking for applicants with ...
Data	Working with the team to provide local communities and public sector agencies with the intelligence to support good decision-making and service delivery. E.g. exploring, analysing, visualising and interpreting data using Excel and other data software.	Undergraduate / postgraduate degree (or equivalent experience) with fair amount of quantitative analysis, e.g. economics or social/ physical sciences.
Technology	Helping develop our data and technology to help people do more things in better and faster ways. E.g. improving how we visualise geographical and time-series data using Google maps/ charts, Gapminder and other technologies, and further developing our in-house databases and reporting tools	Undergraduate / postgraduate degree (or equivalent experience) with fair amount of programming.  Programming experience in any of VB.NET, SQL, PHP and Excel macros would be an advantage.
Marketing &amp; sales	Strengthening the different ways we market OCSI and services. E.g. helping develop and monitor email and social media campaigns, developing marketing material	Marketing experience/ skills, copy-writing, social media, know-how to monitor success of campaigns

About us

Oxford Consultants for Social Inclusion (OCSI) is a social research "spin-out" consultancy from the University of Oxford. We've worked with more than 100 public and third sector organisations to improve their evidence-base for decision-making and delivering better services.

Based in central Brighton, we work with clients around the UK. For more about OCSI and our projects, see www.ocsi.co.uk.

How to apply

Deadline for application is 5pm Wednesday 4th January 2012, with interviews shortly after.

To apply, please email Emma.James@ocsi.co.uk:

- Covering letter highlighting why you are the right person for the role
- CV, including details for 1 referee (work or academic)

For an informal discussion, please contact Tom Smith, OCSI Director, on 01273 810 270.

OCSI is an Equal Opportunities Employer and we encourage people from all backgrounds to apply. Applicants must have the legal right to work in Britain.

<sup>1</sup> Currently proposed to be £7.20 per hour.

http://www.brighton-hove.gov.uk/index.cfm?request=b1149084&action=show\_pr&id=267105.